THEATER — Mr. Anderson's performances last night in the "Elder Brother," and the "Honey Moon," were very fine, and very superior; but we do not think his comedy equal to his tragedy. His forte lies in the display of the deep, the great, the overwrought passions of nature, and not in the milder moods and phases.

His audience last night was a large one, and generally attentive, but still too much given to talking. We are sorry that Mr. Anderson's engagement could not be extended, but hope he will return to us soon.

This evening the "Casanian Brothers" will be performed, Mr. Keeble as the Brothers.

We should not be doing justice were we to refrain from a word of commendation for Miss Ida Venner. Put this week into characters for which she has had no proper preparation, she has played them creditably, and gives promise, with care and study, of considerable excellence.

THE CASE OF THE COURIER OFFICE — At A. S. Keenly, David Gibbons, John L. Overmyer, James R. Watts, and George W. Smith, Committee of Louisville Typographical Union, occupied all day in the Police Court yesterday, and speeches will be made this morning by Nat Wolfe and L. H. Rousseau for the press edition, and Col. Caldwell and Robert Beard for the defense. The discussion will be interesting to the mechanics of the city.

KENTUCKY TRIUMPHANT — We notice that the Cumberlands print straw and stalks are winning fresh laurels wherever it goes. It took the first premium at the United States Agricultural Fair, recently held at Richmond, Va.; and also at the great fair in Baltimore, notwithstanding the great competition at both places. These excellent in claims are many factured in this city, by our friends, Messrs. Peter & Buchanan.

HIGH PRICES FOR SLAVES — On Thursday last the personal estate of ex-Governor Thomas, in Pittsfield estate, Frederick county, Maryland, was sold at public sale, when fourteen slaves bought an aggregate of $14,257. One sold for $1,455; another for $1,425, and a third for $1,320.

STEALING A COFFIN — Two men have been arrested in Wolverhampton, England, for stealing a coffin. The coffin was of copper, and worth $300. The thieves took out the body, and left it in the tomb and sold the coffin for old copper.

OAKLAND RACES — ENTRIES TO DAY — Mr. Parks entered c. g. Valentine; Andy Miller entered a. m. Harry Dugan.

IT — There is a dead dog lying in Jefferson street between Jackson and Hancock.

IT — There will be fine sport at Oakland this afternoon.

Now in a Broadway Saloon—A Duel Arranged between Pat Duffy and Dan Cunningham.

The Morrisey and Hoeman prize-fight bids fair to be the source of numberless quarels and squabbles among the friends of these pugilists, if not of bloody encounters.

One of these affairs came off at Sol. Kipp's, in Broadway, on Saturday night. "Dan Cunningham," a friend of Morrisey, and the man who killed Paulsen, Dr. Drake's friend of the day, was there, got to discussing the merits of the prize-fight. Cunningham said Hoeman was a coward, and fell down when he should have come to the scratch, etc.

Drake denied these assertions, and a violent quarrel occurred, and Cunningham is said to have declared that he would not any longer be a friend to his countrymen, when can he pull out two loaded pistols and tell Drake to take his choice, and they would settle it on the spot.

Drake accepted the offer, and the preliminaries were about to be arranged, when friends interceded and stopped the fight.

After the master was amicably adjusted for the time at least, "Pat Duffy" walked up to Cunningham, and said:

"I will fight you, if you are my size."

"You are my man," replied Cunningham, and it was accordingly arranged that "Con Fitz" (Fitzgerald) should act as Duffy's second, and a man called "Graw" as Cunningham's; and the parties should meet at the corner of Broadway and Canal street at four o'clock yesterday morning, and proceed New Jersey in carriages, and, etc.

The fight was separated, Duffy protesting against fighting on Sunday, but nevertheless expressing a determination to "stand up to the scratch." But for unexplained reasons the parties were not on hand at the appointed time, and no fight occurred.—N. Y. Post, etc.

Nett Weight of Hogs.

At this season the following table for determining the net by the gross weight of hogs, may be useful to dealers in pork. It is based upon the Kentucky rule, that is, for 100 pounds gross deduct 25 pounds, for the second 100 pounds, subtract 12½ pounds, and for the third 100 pounds deduct 11½ pounds. All over three hundred pounds is calculated as net:
